For mums, dads, grandparents, babies, birthdays, get well wishes, couples, friends.... You can find a gift to please anyone, for any occasion, here at Rainbow Designs.

You choose exactly what you want to give. There are no daggy fillers like the ones you get with gift baskets - those small, often useless bits and pieces that are only there to take up space.

Every colourful box comes full to the brim with lollies of your choice.

And that's all.

Unless of course you choose one of our special packages with a gorgeous stuffed toy, bottle of champers, or other delightful bonus.

Any lover of lollies will drool over their box full of sweets. So many lollies fit in one noodle box it'll seem like a never ending box of enjoyment.

And there are no delivery costs.

Plus, if your order is received before 3pm, it'll be despatched the same day, and making mouths water as soon as the day after that!
